Dear Jonathan,

I wanted to thank you again for your assistance with our phone and data needs. Setting up a new office communications system can be a difficult and arduous task, but your expertise and dedication made it a simple process. Whether it was selecting a carrier, deciding on phone equipment, locating contractors, porting lines or coordinating installation dates, you oversaw the entire project while looking out for our best interests.

I feel totally confident in recommending you to other companies and encourage other firms to take advantage of your services.

Sincerely,
